BHHH2 HASH TRASH 32nd Annual VICTOR AWARDS
Recovery Run #1769
30/31 October 2026

Harsono Resort, Ketewel
Bali Budaya Cultural Village, Kemenuh

The Night of Nights

Hares*: Short Shaft; Dip It In Honey; Trycoxagain

The big day arrived. The 32nd Annual Victor Awards night of nights. All the preparations for a great evening of entertainment and awards for achievements were ticked off, culminating in the last minute construction of an outdoor dance floor. All that remained lay in the hands of Bali's fickle weather gods. Would the evening remain fine and dry, or descend into sudden chaos?

It was stunning! A great venue built down around the confluence of two rivers, the Harsono Resort offered everything for the party of the year. Amazing staff, a very tasty buffet dinner "under the stars", shelter for the fantastic Louis Family Band, and superb accommodation for anyone wanting to stay overnight.

What else made this event such a success? YOU, of course!
The Halloween theme suited the propensity of hashers to dress up appropriately . . . or outrageously!

I don't know who looks the scariest

Used Tampon spoke for us all when she said . . .

What an amazing Victor Awards night! 🏆
A huge well done to the Committee for putting together such a fabulous event.
A fantastic location, an amazing band, and great food and drinks made it a night to remember.
Although Wooden Eye couldn't be there, he was certainly working hard behind the scenes to keep the rain away! 🌧️

Well done to everyone involved, and congratulations to all the winners. A brilliant night all round! 👏

Not really "behind the scenes" but working very hard indeed were the fantastic lads from PROST who hauled all their equipment and beer barrels down to the party venue; the same plaudits for a similar feat by the guy from BALIMOON who did it all on his own.

Once again our affable compere was Disco Wanker who masterfully kept the show on the road, meticulously overseen by HM Gritty Balls.

The Louis Family Band played their hearts out to ensure the new dance floor got a bloody good workout. Worthy of mention here is Used Snowball who showed us what he can do with a borrowed guitar. Well played, that man!

Victor "Nightjar" Mason would be pretty chuffed to know that his legacy as the founder of hashing in Bali is still vigorously upheld to this day.
So, who were the WINNERS in this year's VICTOR AWARDS?

Congratulations to these Awardees on being recognised for your participation in BHHH2 events.
Your contribution has been duly noticed. On On!

Talking of winners, there were prizes galore to be won, thanks to the generosity of our SPONSORS Chlamydia won the Door Prize: a United Bicycle (website: unitedbike.com). There were prizes for the Best Dressed Female & Male: Coco Pops, and a tie (by acclamation!) between Monkey Balls and Pig Iron

There were heaps of Raffle Prizes: among them was the BBQ that I wanted to win! The lucky winner was Teaching Head, our "indestructible" hasher who has pulled through victoriously after being smashed up so badly by a crazy motorbike driver last New Year's Eve. She's a real winner, now ready to dance again!

Up to be won by Silent Auction was a fantastic offer of a 2 night stay at The Seraya, Komodo, most generously donated by Vice Grip. Taking this one out was Snowballer – the family is in for a rare treat when they stay there. Congrats on your winning bid.

We partied on, late into the night. DJ Rizky Srya kept people dancing until midnight. Hash Master Gritty Balls ended up bracketed by several bathing beauties in the swimming pool where he could revel in the success of the 32nd Annual Victor Awards

On the Bali Hash 2 Official WA group, the fantastic array of photos and videos that document the party are there for your enjoyment but, as Worm noted, "They'll all be auto deleted in 7 days so if you personally want to save any…. now is your chance!"

Yet another adventure was in store for the revellers on the day after.

The RECOVERY RUN

Run #1769 had long been slated for Hidden Canyon in Guwang. Stalwart hares Dip It In Honey and Trycoxagain, suffering badly from post-party hangovers after a very late night, dragged their sorry butts off into the wilderness near Ketewel to set the trail for those still up for a hash run. Given the circumstances, this was a massive and praiseworthy enterprise. And ultimately . . . in vain!

On a fine day, and "out of the blue", the local community decided to stage a huge cockfight event at the very site of the pre-arranged parking for BHHH2. Adding to the challenge was the river, massively swollen after heavy rains overnight in the mountains to the north. In spite of all their efforts, the hares were forced to abandon their plan . . . but what to do? The Hash must go On On!

A flurry of activity resulted in Plan B.
Notices went out to members to advise of a change of venue. Importantly, the PROST beer truck was redirected to the new site: The Bali Budaya Cultural Village in Kemenuh, Short Shaft's family seat. Despite having risen from his post-party slumber at 5am for a ceremony, he not only arranged to host the Recovery Run but remarkably hefted a bag of shredded paper and set off to mark a beautiful trail. As soon as the new venue was agreed, Dip It In Honey sped off by motorbike from Hidden Canyon to BBCC to help Short Shaft lay the new trail for us.

As Barnacle Balls declared, "A huge thank you to Dip It In Honey, Trycoxagain and the hero of the day Short Shaft. You saved the day again."

The messaging obviously worked; the die-hards turned out in numbers at the new site. Even though the late change of venue was beyond their control, BHHH2 Mismanagement apologises if you were unable/unwilling to make it to what was an excellent Plan B. And the weather was perfect too.

The dedicated crew that has looked after your Run Registration and taken your money each Saturday was acknowledged for their work at the Victor Awards the night before. At the run site, Toilet Trasher & the Terrible Twins saddled up yet again to register you at the Recovery Run.
Love your work!

Meanwhile Short Shaft & Dip It In Honey had gone over and above the call of duty to mark a beautiful trail.

This week, not two – two – two trails but only one Recovery Run. On the other hand, if you had the energy and also realised that Short Shaft only last Tuesday had laid a long trail for his wedding anniversary run with Dewata HHH, then a long run was also out there for you and the "old paper" could still be found.

For a last minute effort it was a fabulous save by the hares, and the location is second to none.

The Circle

Changing the venue at the 11th hour couldn't keep you eager hashers from seeking even more fun at the weekend. Amazingly, 118 of you found your way to the run at Short Shaft and Two Stroke's family home at the Bali Budaya Cultural Centre.

HM Gritty Balls was sufficiently recovered after his long night of partying to tender these Circle notes:

Your HM, desperately trying not to shortcut, ended up on the Out trail, and decided to follow it backwards. But then, with dusk preparing to descend, spotted the back of the pack on the In trail in the far distance. So the 6km trail became 7.6km, and the Circle started later than usual.
HM announced that he was going to miss a few runs in November and that Steptoe had agreed to stand in for him.

This week's Piss Pourers were Prawn Star and Cum on Marleen, who'd done the whole run with her tulips [2 lips?] hair band in place.

The hares, Dip It In Honey and Trycoxagain, who had recced and laid a tricky trail at Hidden Canyon, were greatly helped by Short Shaft for this emergency run at Bali Budaya CC. They had only had time to lay one 6.5km trail, so what did the pack think of this 2nd run site trail?

Barnacle Balls had found it challenging [he walked it in his flip flops!], while Pheelthy Phrogg had been to 2..2..2 wrong addresses, and so had only time for a short walk. A 2nd timer thought it was "a wonderful run", and had really enjoyed it, but Con Artist slept through the run after partying all night!

Que? thought the canyon had been "very well hidden by the hares". Xenia said it was a good run which she'd done slowly but surely, and Lady Gay Gay had enjoyed it.

Sir Phyllis thought the first run was better, even though he hadn't done it, while Kiwi Wanker, with amazing foresight, had been out and recced this emergency run only the previous Tuesday. Pearl Necklace said it was "a fantastic recovery of a Recovery Run".

Tin Tin Balls informed the Circle that Allez Allez had stayed at the original site and done the Hidden Canyon run. Gizzard was a welcome latecomer, but hadn't had the energy to do the run. Max thought it was a good run, while in Monkey Balls' opinion it had been "a spontaneous excellence of a run". Penis Collector was very excited as she'd witnessed lots and lots of Bug Sex on the trail. Tree Shagger summed it up for us – it had been amazing for an emergency run.

The VICTOR AWARDS the previous evening had been greatly appreciated by everyone and the Hash Master called in the Mismanagement for a congratulatory Down Down: 69er, Toilet Trasher, Frankhurther, Monkey Wench, Multigrip, Worm, Short Shaft, Skanky Toe and finally Horny Rabbit who had found the wonderful venue for us. Everyone who had enjoyed the VICTOR AWARDS at Harsono Resort was requested to leave them a good review on Google.

In the absence of our saintly Religious Adviser, Pheelthy Phrogg stood in to induct our Hash Virgins into their Mother Hash, including 3 strapping Dutch lads.

We welcomed 3 New Members this week: Natasha Rofalina, Lin and Max Schwalger.

There were 20 Returners, including Chlamydia, Gizzard, Kiwi Wanker, Head Master, Simply Fred, Sir Gay, Lady Gay Gay, Two Fingers in the Dyke, Agus Djamhoer, Sour Grapes and Babi Goulash.

Pheelthy Phrogg began the Circle's entertainment with a few of his countless jokes, while Mr Bean led us in singing Irian Jaya. By special request Camel Toe was invited to entertain Gizzard with the Chicken song and dance.

DEADWOOD

Pheelthy Phrogg then burst into the S & M Man, complete with some excruciating verses.

Suddenly there was a call for the christening of Agus Djamhoer, a geologist who had already done 27 runs, and Pheelthy Phrogg had the pleasure of bestowing on him the name: Cummingtonite. Look it up in your geological dictionary.

There were several leavers this week, all departing for foreign climes: Deadwood, Mr Bean (Bandung), Pheelthy Phrogg, Wet Dreams and Gritty Balls.
Mr Bean was requested to pass on BHHH2's best Down Downs to the sorely missed Hare Lip, when he gets to Bangkok.

Then it was time for "Swing Low". The Circle closed, the beer was still flowing, and there was some recovery drinking.

The Pheelthy Phrogg might have taken leave of us physically but, despite his return to “Frogistan”, his creative spirit remains. He offers us this topical Limerick of the Week . . .

For a moment I feared I'd gone daft
In search of run site and fresh draft
A cockfighting mix up
Hence a major cock up?
No Sir...Brilliant rescue by Short Shaft*!*

On On!! See you next Saturday at BHHH2
