

ON ON YE NOBLEST ENGLISH - BILLY THE BARD'S BIRTHDAY - APRIL 23

I see you stand like greyhounds in the slips, straining upon the start. The game's afoot So uttered our GM at the outset, and on on on on on to the breachsinews stiffened, blood summoned CONCRETE ERECTION most appropriately with SLURRY IN A HURRY & REBAR and MOUNT 'N' GROAN & COMING ROUND THE MOUNTAIN Remember that it was M 'N' G who also hared St Andrew. No haggis this time but utterly scrumptious minced beef and puff pastry by LABIA MINORA served with fresh garden peas by CRTM, blended White & Mackay scotch and DRAGON'S BLOOD courtesy IBM plus RED & BLUE PROST - take your pick. Let's face it, we are really spoilt in the F&E department. You couldn't do it in the UK - you pay there for a pint in the pub what we pay for as much as we can consume. And the PROST lads are most courteous.

So how was the ST George's Day RUN? There were actually two two two of sensible length which combined before the ON IN, so make up your mind where to start - excellent idea - and it was a 'beautiful' run they all said, though the calling was appalling as per bleedin' usual. How many times ...? I never got as far as that perfect pura beji of Buddhistic origin. MOUNT 'N' GROAN discovers some good ones. Think of the spectral mortuary by Lake Batur at a previous ST GEORGE'S DAY RUN.

Two fat ladies again miles up in the hills - wonderful really - but vale to FLORAL SHIT (salve only last week) - two weeks school hols was all, but ba ck again in June: such loyalty. Feast of cracked ICE by all means girls but no silly hats in the circle. Every ~~III~~ in the land summoned by ex HM BLOW JOE and pretty well all performed admirably.

You do know that the author of THE LIFE OF KING HENRY V also died on 23-iv don't you. What a day. But who the fuck was he? Was he a George of Cappadocia or of Armoric beheaded by Diocletian (Datiena) on 23 - iv - 303, or Spencer's Red Cross Knight or Lord Albert of Coventry's lad or Who cares?
